Christian Mom Fights Homeschool Battle: 'Government Cannot Exclude Religious People'

Tessa Bulzan, a Marine veteran, left her six-figure job to homeschool two of her five children. But when she submitted her Christian curriculum for reimbursement, she said her state's program denied her request.

Does your church have an AI policy?

According to a new poll of Protestant pastors released by the Barna Group, 45% believe each congregation needs to establish some hard and fast rules about how artificial intelligence can be used in the day-to-day workings of the church. Another 49% of clergy say there should at least be some informal guidance on AI use. However, the Barna poll also reveals that about 80% of all churches have NO AI rules or guidance at all.

Number of Teen Girls Identifying as LGBT Plummets Suddenly

The number of teen girls identifying as lesbian or bisexual has plunged rapidly over the last four years. According to new data by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, a whopping 30 percent of ninth-grade girls identified as lesbian or bisexual in 2021. By 2025, that figure had fallen to 17 percent.

Those identifying as bisexual alone fell by half -- from 26 percent to 13 percent.

[A call to prayer before the midterms]

The Family Research Council is urging Christians all across the nation to be in prayer for America, the candidates and election workers in the run up to November 3rd. The FRC says anyone who downloads the Stand Firm app can join in daily prayer with other believers and can hear messages from pastors and other faith leaders. Experts say the results of this election will affect hundreds of millions for years to come. All the details can be found at frc.org.

We are debtors, to proclaim the Gospel by the electronic media, as trustees of our stations. God has given us influence beyond anything our natural abilities or personal goals would suggest.
